Three-time MIAA Defending Champions

2004-05 MIAA Championship Team: Head Coach Doug Hamilton, Paul Resner, John Robbins, Ryan Deutsch, Chris McGown, Matt Warnock, Jeremiah Nelson and Taylor Dunham.

BLUE SPRINGS, Mo. -- The Washburn Ichabods won their third straight MIAA men's golf championship with a perfect score of 42 after recording a 12-stroke win over Central Missouri State in the MIAA Tournament which concluded Tuesday (April 19) at the Country Club of Blue Springs.

Washburn's win at the MIAA Tournament secured their third straight conference championship, and the first perfect conference season since 1999-2000.

The Ichabods carded a four-man, 54-hole score of 886 -- 22 over par -- to pull away from the field. CMSU (34 points) opened the second day of action with a 149 on the first nine to surpass Missouri Western (30 points) for second and get within three shots of WU.

But the Ichabods were the only squad to battle through afternoon winds to record the only sub-300 score of the final 18 holes -- a 299 -- thanks to a 1-over par 73 from senior Chris McGown and a 2-over par 74 from freshman Ryan Deutsch.

Central Missouri State finished with an 898, followed by Western with a 902. Missouri Southern (25 points) and Truman (16 points) shot identical scores of 464 on the second day to remain fourth (915) and fifth (929), respectively.

The MWSU Griffons were led by tournament medalist Brice Garnett. The junior shot a 1-over par 217 to hold off WU's McGown at 221 by four strokes. CMSU freshman Jon Sauer was third with a 222, while sophomore teammate Adam Frank was tied with Truman freshman Michael Spaulding at 224.
